ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thank you to the Food Committee for serving us this morning at the Easter breakfast. Your hard work and dedication are appreciated.

There is more fresh coffee from Thailand in the foyer for Sarah Esh's college fund. The price is $8.00 per package. There is a container in the box where you can insert the money. We plan on keeping it in the foyer/library area until it is all sold. Any questions, please contact Marilyn Weaver. Thanks so much for helping Sarah with her expenses in this way!

We are needing someone to drive the van to pick up the Thailand team on Apr. 24th on their return home. If anyone would be available it would be greatly appreciated. There would be room to take a couple of people along to pick up the team. If you are interested contact Ray Weaver.

Lost & Found - please check for items you've lost and we've found.

Baby Shower & Dedication for Brandon & Jenny Weaver's daughter, Alison Kate. If you wish to bless them with a gift, please give it to Mark & Priscilla or place it in the Resource room labeled for Alison, by April 19.

Please complete and hand in your VBS volunteer forms. They can be placed in the box in the foyer or given to a member of the VBS committee.

Retiring Soon? Everence is holding an informational seminar about Medicare and Social Security on April 9, 6 p.m., at the Ephrata Everence office, 1020 Sharp Avenue, Ephrata. RVSP by calling Jeff High at 733.9414.
